Rear Admiral Thomas J. Christman, USN
Executive Manager
Department of Defense EOD Program
Naval Explosive Ordnance Disposal Facility
Indian Head, Maryland 20640

Dear Admiral Christman:

My letter of 4 May 1972 designated [redacted] as this Agency's point of contact for matters pertaining to explosive ordnance disposal (EOD).
Because of other duties, [redacted] will be unable to continue in this capacity and, in his place, I wish to designate [redacted] Chief, Physical Security Division, Office of Security. [redacted] may be reached by telephone at [redacted]

The cooperation of your staff on EOD matters since May has been outstanding and I especially want to commend Commander D. H. Moody, Commanding Officer of the EOD Naval School for his efforts on our behalf in tailoring a training program to satisfy our particular requirements.

We certainly look forward to a continuing fine relationship in this important matter.

Sincerely,

[redacted]

John W. Coffey
Deputy Director for Support
